

CMTN Annual Report - Public Interest Disclosure Act

September 1, 2025

The Public Interest Disclosure Act \(PIDA\) is BC legislation that provides a framework for employees to report specific kinds of serious wrongdoing with legislated protection from reprisal. PIDA is effective for employees of government ministries as of December 1, 2019.

Coast Mountain College (CMTN) became compliant under PIDA effective June 1, 2024.

Under section 38 (1) of PIDA, CMTN is responsible for reporting annually, all disclosures of wrongdoing made, including disclosures made to the Ombudsperson about CMTN that we have been notified of by the time of this report.

In this reporting period, the Ombudsperson did not notify us of a disclosure that it was proceeding to investigate.

In accordance with the following sections of PIDA, for the period of June 1, 2024 to July 31, 2025, the following information is reported:

PIDA Section	Disclosures	Amount Received
38.2 (a)	Number of disclosures received, including referrals of disclosure	0
38.2 (a)	Number of disclosures:	0
	i. Acted on	0
	ii. Not acted on	0
38.2 (b)	Number of investigations commenced as a result of disclosure	0
38.2 (c)	In the case of an investigation that results in a finding of wrongdoing:	0
	i. a description of the wrongdoing,

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>ii. any recommendations, including those made by the Ombudsperson, and</li> <li>iii. any corrective action taken in relation to the wrongdoing or the reasons why no corrective action was taken</li> </ul>
38.2 (d)	Any other information prescribed by regulation	NA

As required by section 38 (4) of PIDA, the information included in this report excludes material that would unreasonably invade a person's privacy, reveal the identity of a discloser, or reveal the identity of an individual who was the subject of an investigation.

For more information on PIDA, please visit Public Interest Disclosure – Coast Mountain College.

Laurie Wayne, PhD
President & CEO

